

MILPHOG, MILGRAPH Competitions Underway — Enter Now!

DoD's 42nd annual Military Photographer of the Year (MILPHOG) competition and the 2nd annual Military Graphic Artist of the Year (MILGRAPH) contest are underway.

The MILPHOG competition awards excellence in nine still media categories and seven motion media categories. Top honors include the naming of the Military Photographer of the Year and the Military Videographer of the Year.

Winning photography will be exhibited in the Pentagon. The MILPHOG competition is officially sponsored by the Armed Forces Information Service (AFIS), with assistance from the National Press Photographers Association.

Material entered for competition must have been produced between Oct. 1, 2000, and Dec. 31, 2001. Deadline for submission is March 6.

For more information on the MILPHOG competition, contact the military photographer coordinators at (301) 677-4989; still division coordinators at (301) 677-3685; or motion media division coordinators at (301) 677-3173. The DSN prefix for all numbers is 622.

The MILGRAPH competition has eight categories, and will award the title of Military Artist of the Year. Entries must have been produced between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31, 2001. Submission deadline is March 6. For more details on MILGRAPH, contact the MILGRAPH coordinators at (301) 677-5022 (DSN 622).

Both competitions are open to active-duty and Reserve enlisted personnel who hold a visual information occupational specialty code (i.e.: NEC).
